We are going to miss Dona, just as we have missed Dick all these years. Dona was a gracious lady, always pleasant, always smiling. I'm sure she will be overjoyed to, once again, be with her husband. What a wonderful team they were here on earth, and will now be a bright spot in Heaven.

I was blessed by many years of friendship with Dona. She was a warm, gracious and lovely lady. In the past few years I enjoyed many stories of her interesting life which she shared when we visited her in her lovely condo. She and Dick always sat in their "special pew" at Northeast Presbyterian Church and were quite a couple.

Dona's sweetness touched me in a wonderful way. Sometimes I would deliver plants and flowers from family and friends to her room. Dona's reaction was always delightful, those flowers were so appreciated. I miss her. My heart goes out to Dona's friends and family. Phyllis
