Dear Kelly, Proverbs 31 tells us that one characteristic of a virtuous woman is that "her children rise up and call her blessed" You and Cathy have honored your mom - you have proved her to be a mother and woman of virtue - you have loved her well and cared for her so unselfishly. Over the years we have watched as you have shown your mom the utmost respect and love - you have been a good son! The scripture in Proverbs also says that a sign of a virtuous wife is "the heart of her husband safely trusts her" - what a great description of Cathy - who you could safely trust with the daily care of your mom these last couple of months. we love you both, Don and Fay
