Wow ... Nannie... I was looking for mom's zip code and you pop up.... Brought me few steps back.. Kind of blew me away. But maybe you needed me or I needed you. I miss You so much.. I wish you would take the weeds out of my gardens. They are garden of weedings. LOL. But I must say that you must have brought me hummingbirds and butterflies cause I have more than ever. I planted some new plant's just for you. I have alot of work to do dog days of summer . I think about the days I cam own to o your gardens when you couldn't alot. And every time I work in them you are right there with me. I make my bed every morning and I say good morning Nannie. I put everything right where it belongs just like you.. Life has not been the same... without you in it. But help's to know that your happy and living a life without pain and your with grandpa. Tell him I said hi cause I never got to meet him. I will soon. I will see you both someday soon. Till then keep your wonderful smile. And honestly Nannie the world down here is not good.. It's falling apart. That's how I know it wont be long till I see you again. I love you more most moster and more than that.. Missing you everyday. But you still put a smile on mu face.. oxoxoxoxoxo

Once upon a time, a little star in heaven... asked GOD,"Father... why am I a little star? Why is my light not as big and bright as the other stars?" God answered her by saying,"Because my little star, you have not found your LOVE LIGHT yet". "My LOVE LIGHT?", she asked,"How do I find my LOVE LIGHT?" God smiled back at her and said, "You will see my little star, ...you will see"... And then with a gentle push, GOD lovingly sent the little star to earth. On that day... March 3,1919... Minnie Elizabeth was born. As the lil star made her journey here on earth, her light began to grow brighter. It grew brighter as she was loved by her parents. It grew brighter as she loved and was loved by her brothers and sisters. It grew brighter as she fell in love,got married,and was loved by her husband. It grew brighter as she loved and was loved by her children,thier spouses and her friends. And, it grew brighter, as she loved and was loved by her grandchildren,her great grandchildren, and her great great grandchildren. Years and years went by, but it seemed like only yesterday to the little star. She had grown into a Big Beautiful Shinning Star! Beaming with bright light. Just like all the stars she had admired in heaven. "Oh Thank you GOD", she sang out! "Thank you for giving me my LIGHT". "You are welcome." GOD answered. "I see you have found your LOVE LIGHT." "But, my child, I did not give it to you". "You gave it to yourself". "You see... when you give LOVE, you receive LOVE... that is how your LOVE LIGHT grows". God was pleased, he was so very proud of her. She had done everything he sent her here to do. GOD said, "You have done well my little star,but now it is time to come home." "But father", she answered,"I am afraid to leave my loved ones.... will they be ok?" "Oh yes",he answered, "They will be fine"."Just as I am always with them, so shall you be". "Together we will watch over them from above". "And your LOVE LIGHT will forever shine within them....until you meet again." The once little star beamed with LIGHT ...as she smiled back at God."Ok Father", she answered,.. "I trust and believe in you....and I am ready to come home now". And in that very moment, GOD reached down with his gentle hands and lifted her up into the heavens....lovingly placing her by his side. She was finally home.....and at peace. By Deb Infantine Oldest-grand daughter We thank you Heavenly Father for blessing us with your little star...We pray that the LOVE she gave to us and the lessons she taught us will never be in vain... in Jesus name....we pray.....AMEN

Nani Dear. I have many memories of you, all of them gestures of your kindness and love. You bathed every grandchild of yours in your pink bathroom sink. I use to put my head on your lap so that you would scratch my back and make that little sound with your voice, and make me laugh. How you would sweep your kitchen floor when I was young, but I never could see the dirt. I remember clicking pens with you when you had homework from your job...and many, many more. Nani until we are together again, just know that I love you THE MOSTESTER!

Dear Nannie, I am so very sad that you are not here with us. I will think of you and miss you every day from this day forward,until I see you again. But it makes me happy that you are with Grandpa,your brothers and sisters and puffy. And I am happy you are not in pain anymore. I want to thank you for all the love you gave me,my children and our family. I am especially thankful to you for teaching me about Jesus and GOD. Even whining and complaining you dragged my sisters and I to church on Sundays,whether we wanted to go or not...lol. Thank you Nannie...I love you MORE!
