Mom, May god comfort you in the days ahead and may the loved ones you left behind stay strong and close for your sake if not our own. This is for all my sisters and brothers,when someone close to me is hurting, I search for things to say or any little gesture to help them in someway. For though I can't heal sorrow with my gentle touch I'll do my best to let you know I care so very much! We all need to start being a family today, remember no body is promised tomorrow Love Joann
