Mom, I'm already missing "ANYBODY HOME???IT'S GRANDMA CHAMBERS" when I would pick up the phone you would be cuttin' up laughing. Then I would start laughing and it would be a minute or so before we could actually start our conversation. I want you to know that being on the receiving end of your love, easy laughter, smile, strength and courage has been an honor. I Love you, Cyndi

Mom, there are so many things I want to say, but if I was to say everything that's in my mind about you it would never end. So I'm going to say the important things that I remember, and that is Your Smiling Face, Your Caring, Your Strength, and being a Great Mom. It was the best 49 years of my life having you as my Mom, and that's why I will NEVER FORGET YOU MOM. You will be deeply missed. Until we see each other again... Rest in Peace... Tell Dad Hi for me... Love Always... Your Son Russell

Mom; Where do I begin since there are so many things I love about you. Your laughter, your strength, your courage, your wisdom, your kind heart and your smile. You never let things get you down. I know you are watching over me and helping me through this in your special motherly way as you always have. You always had a way of looking at things in a positive light no matter what. That gift which you gave to me, be positive and you will find a solution I will cherish forever and I will you. In all the world, I will never find a heart so full of love, a spirit so kind and giving, a smile so sweet, an inspiration so worthwhile and a LOVE so BIG and WONDERFUL, you are truly "ONE OF A KIND!". For that and so many more reasons, I will love you for the rest of my life and beyond. I love you Mom. Your daughter
