My heart goes out to the family. Justin was such a great person and he is very loved. You will always be with us Justin and will never be forgotten. He loved his Mother and family more then life it's self, He is our Angel our soldier and wants nothing more then for us all to be happy although he is no longer here he is still in our hearts and we will see him in our dreams. I love and miss you so much Justin love always, Meagan

I had been blessed to spend hours talking with Justin and spent a short time with him. Such a sweet soul. Justin and I spoke about many things but he was a very spiritual person. He was very kind and loved his mom very much. God Bless I pray for peace and rest for all his family and friends and those who's lives he touched even if just for a moment. His passing is a great loss to many.

My heartfelt sympathy to the Green Family. Justin was sweet and kind. I can relate to the pain you are feeling having recently losing my brother. Josh and Courtney were there to share their grief with our family and we appreciated it and will be there for them too. We ask ourselves why God takes a young life with so much yet to live and if only we had it in our power to change things. I was fortunately to have recently met Justin and was just with him last weekend at the Marlins game in Miami. He had met one of my best friends at my brother's celebration of life gathering. They were both so happy. God rest his soul.

I know the agony you must be going through. Words are not adequate to express my sorrow for your loss...I empathize with you and want you to know that if there is anything I can do for you please don't hesitate to let me know...I was privileged to have known Justin for the short time that I did...He was always polite and fun to be around...I know he was looking forward to a happy life with his new found girlfriend, the Love of his life, and I appreciate the support he gave my family during the loss of my son Brian...God Bless you all and I know that Justin knew that God loved him. My prayers are with you all

I had the honor to meet Justin recently on a few occasions due to the recent passing of brother Brian "Red". Justin was always polite & cordial and provided me & my family with support during our difficult time. I know words cannot explain the excruciating pain his family is experiencing. Please know I am here for anything you may need as someone who understands your immense grief. Much love and many thoughts & prayers are with you. Sincerely, Alysia (Red's sister in St. Pete)
