Whenever your name was mentioned I would always start to laugh as you always brought good times and lots of happy memories to the times we all shared. Thank you for the many years of friendship you shared with us and for being unique and my "Auntie Helena!" May everyone learn from your cheerful spirit that you have left us to remember you by.

Helena your passing is going to take me a while to recover from. We had a life time of happy memories, these are what will continue to keep a smile in my heart. No one could have had a better friend than you. Thank you for your wonderful friendship of 59 years. My love and prayers to your children and grandchildren. God Bless them to day and forever.
