Glenn was the director of a transformational camp I attended in 1960. The Presbyterian Church sponsored an Inter-Racial Work Camp in Seaton, IL, it was an amazing and wonderful experience for a 16 year old white girl from Southern Illinois. I wish I had made contact with him before he passed.

Dr."Glenn", a dear friend will be greatly missed. A dear man with always a smile and an encouraging word, a true man of God. Sincere sympathy to all his family. So sorry he will be unable to attend "Glenn's" services as we will be traveling to our second home in NM on Tuesday morning. May "Glenn" always be at the right hand of God and may his spirit soar watching over us all. Sincerely, James Lyn and Susanne Provo
