Mike, I have no words to express my gratitude for the pure, unconditional love that you shared with my daughter. I myself, have learned much about real love from you and Lorrie, and your all too brief moments together with Audrey. It is because you loved so deeply, that your own daughter will know this pure, unconditional love and learn to love others around her as you did. I will miss you, but you will never really be gone. You will live on in the hearts of many and through your amazing art. I must say, Audrey is your best art ever! Well done dear Michael. Rest in Peace now.

Michael, Although I never had the pleasure of meeting you, I spent many times with Lorrie when she was growing up. Some of my happiest memories are of those times. I know that you will be missed. Rest in peace knowing that Lorrie and Audrey will be loved and cared for by so many who love you both. Bill Richardson

Michael, I still haven't processed this tragedy, but I wanted to thank you for bringing Audrey, your miracle baby, into the world. Without her, I don't know that Lorrie and our family would be able to stay strong through all of this. Your daughter will never have any doubt that her daddy loved her. I took a look through your online art gallery yesterday. I sat in awe of how much talent lived inside of you. You may be gone physically- but through the love of your family and the brilliant artwork you left behind, you will live eternally. Nick and I promise to be the positive role models that you would want in Audrey's life and we will take care of her and Lorrie. God Bless all who mourn and may Michael forever rest in peace.~Jennifer Williams

Michael, I will always miss you. We became so close in such a short period of time. Richard loved you, and we became the same. I will never forget that. When you said 'You da man' you picked that up from Rich, and I loved that. That was between Richard and I, and you picked up on that. I love you and I miss you. You will always be one of my best friends, and family too. I miss you already, and I'll love you forever. I will take care of your mother, and I'm here for Lorrie and Audrey. Mike, 'You Da Man!'
