Mom I miss you so much. Each day when I go home from work I feel so alone and sad because you are not there waiting for me with the boys. You really taught me what a real family is. You gave your love unconditionally to all. I miss our get away trip when Rick would be out of town and we would sneak to the Out Back so you could have 2 beers and me 2 margaritas. We would laugh so much on the way home because we thought we got by for something bad we did. Thank you Mom for being a mother to me. There will never be a day go by that I will not think of you. You are in heaven now with Gram and Aunt Helen. You are finally home where you wanted to be for years. Save a place for me as you promised. I love you and miss you so much. Eva

We will miss her but will always remember the good times she brought to all of us kids and to everyone that met her. She is at peace now and without pain and will forever be in my thoughts.

She was my best friend. She dedicated her whole life to her six children, her mother, and her relatives and family. She always gave of herself to everyone else. We begged her to go through all those surgeries for our own selfish reasons, to keep her with us. She was so tired. Now she is with her mother and loved ones with God. No more pain, Mom. We miss you already. Sue and Jeff
