Mrs. Edythe M. Lynn

FEB 10, 1918 - OCT 27, 2013

Edythe Margolies Lynn, 95, of St. Petersburg, Florida, peacefully passed away on Sunday, October 27, 2013. She was a beloved mother and grandmother. Born February 10, 1918 in Brooklyn, New York, Edythe was the daughter of the late Florence Birdie and Charles W. Margolies. She was married to Joseph Abraham Lynn, who preceded her in death in 1980. They were married for 40 blissful years. Edythe is survived by her three loving sons; Ronald M. and his wife Julie, Steven G. and his wife Jill, and Douglas C. and his wife Lucy, by her 4 grandchildren; Tara, Steven, Dawn and Kristina, and by her 4 great grandchildren. Edythe's youngest son, Douglas, lovingly provided assistance the past ten years with her care and life. The immediate family offers their greatest gratitude and love for his efforts. A graveside service will be conducted on Tuesday, October 29, 2013 at 2:30 PM at the Woodlawn Cemetery, St. Petersburg, FL.

To the family of Edythe Lynn,My family and I have had the pleasure of being friends with your parents for many years. My Mother, Marsha Liebman was good friends of Edythe and they used to spend a lot of time visiting or travelling together when my Mom was alive. I visited Edythe almost once weekly when I attended Ditmas Jr. High School as it was only a short hop and skip from the school to your home in Brooklyn, NY Edythe was always a gracious host. I enjoyed my time visiting with her during those years and volunteering to walk Pat, your sheepdog. He was so patient with a kid like me. I am sure Pat is also wagging his tail and greeting Edythe when she got to the other side. I also remember the spats Douglas and I had as kids when we vacationed with our mothers in Florida all those years ago. I had occassion to visit Edythe at her home in St. Petersburg when my husband and I traveled through. We were very glad to be able to see Edythe a few years ago before she left us here on Earth. I am sure your parents are now reunited in heaven, watching over you all and being proud of their children. May all those wonderful memories sustain us when we lose a loved one. With warmest regards,Brenda Liebman Aron

What a beautiful obituary. I am filled with sorrow for my favorite Uncle Doug. I am so glad to learn that his mother passed peacefully. I know how much he loved her and I know she loved having him by her side. I only hope that time will heal this heartache. All our love, Lauren, Stan Jason, Vince and Nana
