Mr. James A. Miller Jr.

NOV 7, 1957 - JUL 4, 2010

Miller, James A. Jr., 52, of Pinellas Park, FL, died July 04, 2010, at home. He was a gardener, beautiful artist and had a love of writing and reading about anything he could. In his younger days, he was a Boy Scout. Jimmy was very devoted to his mother, Jean, whom he cared for. His smile was one that could light up any room. Jimmy deeply loved his 6 daughters whom idolized him. He attended church at New Journey Fellowship. Jimmy was a devoted friend to many and will be deeply missed. He is survived by his mother, Jean; his wife, Patricia; 6 very loving daughters; 3 devoted sisters and brother. Jimmy was preceded in death by his father and one brother.

Hi lovie. I miss you deeply. Every morning I think of you. Every night I go to bed thinking of you till I fall asleep. I'm still alone; just as I promised. We made a promise that if one of us passed away we would stay single no matter what. I have kept that promise. I just celebrated my 41st birthday and wished I could've shared it with you, but somehow I knew you were watching me. I love you lovie so much and never will that change. Remember From Heaven and Beyond That's how much I love you. Always your wife P.M.

Hi Lovie, I miss you so much and I love you. I think of you all the time. The minute I wake up till I go to bed at night. I miss how you used to lay your head on my chest at night and I would rub your eyebrows and rub your forehead to put you to sleep, and then the next night you would tell me it was my turn and you would let me lay my head on your chest and you would run your fingers through my hair until I fell asleep. We always said I Love You Lovie before we went to sleep too. I miss how we would hold hands at night and wake up and still be holding hands. I miss the way you looked at me when you told me you loved me. I miss your beautiful green eyes. I miss being able to tell my best friend my thoughts and feelings everyday. I love you lovie. We made a promise to stay single if anything should happen to one of us. ("lovie I'm still single and loving and missing you". Always your wife".. I love you Lovie.....

I cannot tell you how sorry I am to hear about Jim. Mickey(my son) told me he had heard it from my brother Hal. I know I haven't seen anyone in a very long time, but it's truly sad for me to hear. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love Jenny
