I was in 8th grade and asked Lynn out on a date. Her dad found out and called in my dad into his office. After chewing him out, my dad chewed me out. All of us Air Force brats are one big happy family. I loved you guys.

Dear Lynn and family, You have my heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your dad. May warm memories surround you and bring much needed comfort to you during this time of grief. I pray you find comfort in the following: "Let There Be Memories" by Linda Barnes: Let there be memories - fond recollections of special occasions and everyday things. Let your heart start on its journey to healing by feeling the comfort remembering brings. Let there be memories - pictures, mementos, and favorite stories both funny and sad. Let your mind wander the paths of remembrance, reliving the joys and the good times you've had. Let there be memories - signs that our loved ones remain near in spirit long after they're gone...tender, surprising, heartwarming, and welcome - sweet proof of the promise that love will live on. Much love to you, Lynn. Let me know if there's anything I can do
