I met Gary at the Nowhere. We were always watching out for one another. He was always helping people build things. He made a grate for my outside fireplace. But when he wasn't helping others he would be having fun. He always new if I was upset and give me a Garebear Hug. We were like 2 peas in a pod. One of us would always instigate the other. We had many water fights, beer fights and even a pie fight. He even instigated a situation to make me have a mock wedding at the Nowhere. Gary and I shared alot of precious memories together and he will always have a special place in my heart. I will cherish those memories deeply and love him forever. He will be greatly missed. My thoughts and prayer's are with his family.
