I had the pleasure of coming to know Terry while working for her Aunt, Ethel Noyes at the Rams Head Inn, Absecon, NJ. Terry was a thoughtful and wonderful person, enjoyable to be around with a spirit and desire hard to quench. Only recently learning of her passing I am still taken by same. My condolences to her son, sister, niece and extended family. I am sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Jim Wallace

I was so saddened to read of the passing of my old friend, Terry. Over the years, I have shared my happy memories of our "Smithville" days; horseback riding, "helping" the bakery chef, and lovely meals at the "Main Inn." My deepest condolences to Mrs. Muller, Christine and to Terry's son, Christopher. Jane-Ann Marrone Ventnor, New Jersey

I was blessed to have become friend's with Terry several years ago, and even more so when she moved to Florida. I treasure the time we spent going out to dinner, and most of all her wisdom and friendship she shared with me in our conversation's...always offering great advice and such a true friend to the end! We were both night owls and loved to talk and share life stories. I will truly miss her dearly, her strength, and most of all the pleasure of calling her my true friend. God bless you Terry!! Love always, Cindi Warren
