I grew up as an Army child, so far away from St. Petersburg most of my younger life. Stanley and my other cousins always made me feel welcome, special. Stanley and I traded stamps as children...and I always thought we held a special feeling for each other. I was blessed to have had a cousin like him..and hope his children will know how much their Dad was appreciated for his kindness and sweetness. My husband Bob and I have made a special donation of $100 in his name to the Wellness Community of Southwest Florida, which provides free support services to anyone affected by cancer (directly or a loved one). love to all his family, Catherine (formerly McNabb) and Bob Luckner
