We will miss you Valentina. We all shared so many happy memories on Ironware Place and even after. I can still see you all playing outside and the many nights you slept over with Gabby and Danny. We will remember you with much love, and you will stay in our hearts forever.

I am completely speechless and heart broken. Me and Valentina had been best friends since we were 8 years old. The memories are all still so fresh in my head, like they were just yesterday. Unfortunately life took us separate ways and looking back i wish i wouldve taken every given opportunity i had to spend with her. She will be missed and she will forever live on in my heart. my prayers are with her family, i love you all and God bless.

I didn't know Valentina personally. I am a friend of Valentina's fiance's ex-wife. Both his ex-wife and their daughter from the marriage always spoke highly of Valentina. Tabitha, the ex-wife, always felt her daughter was in great hands when she spent time with her father and Valentina, especially because Valentina was present. Tabitha respected her. She had so many positive things to say about Valentina. Angelina loved Valentina dearly. You can see in her words, expressions and even how she shared with her mom about all the moments she spent with Valentina and her daddy. The last thing that I witnessed with Angelina was about a week ago when I spent time with her. The cutest thing I ever heard a child say, as innocent as it was "my daddy doesn't take care of me, Valentina does." I don't think she meant that her daddy didn't take care of her but that the way Valentina took care of her was so special to Angelina. Angelina holds a special place in her heart for Valentina. Angelina always lit up w/ smiles when she spoke of Valentina. It was evident that she was especially fond of Valentina. I can only imagine that Valentina was a ray of sunshine in anyone's day she crossed paths with. Such a terrible tragedy. She will be forever loved and missed. May the Lord keep her always safe and loved and free from any pain.
