I only had the honor of meeting "Scott's Mom" once, a very long time ago and I remember that she was so kind and happy. She made me feel very welcome during my brief visit. I have known Scott for a really long time now and he has always been one of my dearest friends. No matter how long it has been or how much time has passed, every time Scott and I talk, or email, it feels just like no time has passed at all. I know that Scott is the person and friend that he is because of you Mrs. Elliott. I thank you for raising such a great guy. I don't know where I would be sometimes if I had never had the opportunity to ever meet him. I am very happy that you are in peace now and have moved to Heaven. I know that is where you really wanted and deserved to be. You are an angel and I know you are watching over Scott and the rest of your loved ones. You made everyone proud and are greatly missed. Rest in Peace. You and your family will always be in my thoughts. Carole Helleis

It doesn't seem real that our Mom has left us. She was so vibrant and happy most all of the time. In all the years I can remember, Mom never hated anyone.. She was a very forgiving person. Throughout her life she always believed in God. I can remember back to when I was 4 years old, Mom would go to church every Sunday and sometimes Wednesday, and I would go with her. She remained faithful to the church her whole life.... Now the Lord has called her. She is now in the best place... Heaven. I love her and will miss her, but we will be together again ! Thank You Mom ! I love you, Chris

Hi my friend, I just woke up, and got on this computer, to type, but instead i read your sons and friends messages, well i started to cry, because i think about how much you love them and everyone that can into your path and how they can't come over to see you, any more, and how much you and your sons loved each other, but i can hear and see you saying, with a smile, girl! don't cry for me, Chris, Scott, Jeff, and Donnie are going to be just find. Lisa i'am having fun here! Well jeanne, i respect that I won't cry for you, but i will cry because i love you. This morning i heard someone knocking on the door i went to look but they were gone. I remembered i wanted to sign this book. Jenny i think it was you! because i have never heard a knock like that. Thank you for everything. while you are up there talk to your angel friends about me because i'll be there one day. Oh! and tell God something for me, since you see him from time to time . (He has chosen the right one, someone who will keep the angels from getting discouraged when work need to be done.

Jeanne moved next door to me about 1968,in Dayton Ohio, we became immediate friends.What I remember most is the many Scrabble games and Monopoly games we played. We were very competitive when we played, but always had a great time when we were together. In all the years that I knew Jeanne, I never heard her say a rude or negative word about anyone. She was a great friend who I loved very much. I will miss her.

WOW, what an honor to be able to sign this particular guestbook! Well, I didn't know Mrs. Elliott but her son, Scott, is a very close friend and brother in Christ... and through him I was able to speak to his mom on the phone one night...what a joy she was! I was hoping that someday I could meet her in person but I surely will meet her in Heaven..and I can't wait! Scott always talked so highly of her and I always felt like I knew her without ever meeting her. Mrs. Elliott, I look forward to meeting you in Heaven and thank you for giving us all your wonderful son, Scott...he is a great friend and brother, and blessing!...we love him and we love you! I know what a huge blessing you were and are in Scotts life:) Our prayers go out to the entire Elliott family. Blessing's to you all, in Jesus name!

Mother, your Spirit lives with me everyday. Its so exciting to know, your home now, in Heaven, a place you have been longing for all your life. YOU MADE IT! Heavenly Bliss, every second of the day, I cant even imagine. I do miss your home cook meals, and that awesome buttery asparagus you got me hooked on. Now you know you have some incredible cooking skills if you got me hooked on asparagus. Mother, you were a wonderful, loving, person. God BLESSED us with the BEST! I feel very lucky. You are my Angel, and will forever live in my heart. I know you are there. I just do. This is one thing, Im sure on. God took you before that second was even over. I was there and was happy to see you enter the Heavenly Gates of GODs Kingdom. I will see you again, oneday. Im looking forward to the day I can give you that big hug, and tell you- I LOVE YOU! But until then, IM going to tell you again, probably a million times- I LOVE YOU- MOTHER! PRAISE GOD for he has BLESSED you. Praise God Mother, for he has blessed you with everlasting happiness, and I know thats what you lived for- Jesus Christ and he has DELIVERED! Amen!----- I praise God too, because he can do anything! Hes already brought peace to my heart, knowing he took Mother at that very second-Praise GOD! He is the almighty KING! In Loving Memory, Your Son-Scott
