Father God I am thankful for the beauty that was Tina, the compassion that was her heart and the love which she shared with her family and the world...Please lend to them your love and grace during this difficult time. When they hear the ocean I pray they remember her vigor for life, when they feel the warmth of the sun on their faces may they feel her touching their cheeks and as the birds soar above them may they remember that angels have wings that circle their hearts everyday and while she is not here on earth...she is in the presence of many who got their wings sooner than we would like... may they wind carry her Laughter and may the promise that she hoped for in her childrens spirits be felt by them when they awaken each morning to begin again...remind them of the Good times and wipe their tears with blankets of hope, peace and healing light. Father bless them eternally with the love she shared with each and love her while they are apart...Father I pray for her friends...surely the space she filled will now hold precious tears and memories of the fun she brought to an average day...make peace for them as well father, for it is in the suffering that our faith is tested and our souls cry for understanding to push away the destructive nature of the enemy...I pray that you lend support to her father... for the loss of her shall weigh heavy on his heart...Father Take Good Care of her...she was a good one and I will miss her laughter... If I could send a cell phone to heaven I would...she didn't want to carry one here on earth but I bet she would be talking to many everyday from heavens door...Lovely you have wings of gold like your heart was on earth...Upon seeing hummingbirds and butterflies We will be reminded you have wings...show them off well and dance on the rainbows...You left twinkles of light in the eyes of your children for us to watch them shine! ~Hugs!

Tina and I go way back to our teen years, Tina was always full of life, Always knew she could get a laugh out of you. She was always so happy and full of life herself, she loved life and lived life to the fullest. We had lost touch after our school years and she moved out of the neighborhood. I started working for Betty Jo and Ric, and Tina came in the bar after we had opened, could not beleive it was her, we had remenised over our times growing up. Tina had married a wonderful man named Chad and Chad was just the nicest person with a heart of gold, and they were happy, and they had created a beautiful family. Tina not just a friend she was the bomb, whatever you needed she was there. She was the most caringest person I have ever met, she knew how to make you feel good about yourself and what you were doing. She always had good things to say about people. My love to Tina who will always be here with us, and my love to Chad and the kids and the family. Rest in peace my love, you will always be with us, keeping us all in line, and making us laugh.

On August 9, 2013, I wrote this note for Tina's family, friends and myself. I put it on my Facebook page. For those who do not have a Facebook page, I'd like to share my post: Tina, when I saw you today, it was all I could do to keep my tears at bay. The beautiful, happy person you were, has now been replaced with that evil "C" word. As I sat next to you for 3 hours today, I thought how in the world could he take you away. I tried to stay strong for as long as I could, but the strings on my heart, just kept being pulled. Your beautiful hair, your vibrant smile, you laugh that could be heard from a million miles. All lost and gone away, only a shell is what's left to remain. I pray for Bella, Chad and Justin too. I know you are all strong and will pull through. Jessica, Casey, Carrie and Richard too, don't think I have forgotten about you. To Kathy Solera, who has taken this hard, just remember what a special friend to her you are. As the days come and as the day's go, Tina, thoughts of you we will never let go. Adrienne
