Rose was very kind and loving to myself and my younger siblings Irene, Sarah, and Christina throughout the years. We began a long relationship with her older sister Marge who was like a grandmother to us when we were children and became very close to her family. We were always welcome in Rose's home and enjoyed our stays with her and her children and grandchildren during our trips to Florida with her sister. Our visits were always punctuated with laughter and warm feelings. Rose's loving, nurturing nature left a great impression on us all. I also remember the trips Rose and Bernice would take to New Jersey to see Marge and all us kids, it makes me smile to recall all the love and happiness. She will be dearly missed and her family and friends should count themselves lucky to have had such a good person in their lives. We love you Rose.
