I will miss him so very much.... we caught up as adults from the years that seperated us as children.. I only wish that we could have been closer in residence... Not a day goes by that i dont think how our lives would be if we had stayed ""home""... but, my brother,, had we not left,, our beautiful children would not be on this earth. bittersweet.. im jealous that you know the answer why... Godspeed.. Your pain is over.. Rest easy..

I'm like most others, good friends that lost touch after high school. We lived in the same neighborhood for years and then my family moved onto the other side of Lone Oak Road. It wasn't a couple of years later that he moved into my neighborhood again. We had such great times. There wasn't many things this kid couldn't do (BMX, skateboard, basketball, ping pong, etc.). You name it, he could do it and was just the funniest guy. You will be missed, my friend. May GOD bless you and your family.

Mark you were too young to be taken...I hear lots of us saying "we lost touch " ...maybe we should all learn a valuable lesson from Marks passing,that being how important it is to keep in touch with people we care about, that we've ever cared about in life,even if just through a email,or text message ..thank you Mark for helping us realize how important this is..MARK was a sweet, quiet, friendly guy who never raised his voice in anger,or picked on anyone. He had a AWESOME neon green KUWAHARA BMX bicycle with white tires and I drooled over it constantly! He was always the COOL KID WHO HAD ALL THE BEST STUFF! everyone was drawn to his easygoing personality and friendly smile.GOD BLESS YOU MARK AND GOD BLESS YOUR BEAUTIFUL WIFE AND KIDS....Teresa Taylor-Payne
