It is so hard to just pick one memory of Uncle Bruce... There were so many fun times shared with him... He was a huge staple in my life growing up and I knew that he was ALWAYS in my corner supporting me. I have memories that will last me a lifetime and only hope that I can paint the picture of just how wonderful he was to my daughter, Alexis. He was stubborn and bull headed but at the same time loved his family and loved to have fun. If he liked you - you knew it. We will miss you so much but hopefully can find comfort in knowing that you are in Heaven with Memere and Aunt Lenora watching over us. We love you Uncle Bruce!!

Took me awhile to get my thoughts together..It has been a long journey for all of you and for that I am sorry. Bruce gave it a long hard battle, he was strong willed and a hard headed man as we all knew. Though I may not have been a part of his life over the yrs. I tooo feel the loss because you kept me apart of his long battle.. With tears of sorry I write this but I take comfort in knowing he is with his Mom and with Lenora in heaven..He is at peace and in due time you will all come to peace....Iwill always treasure two summers ago when hw spent the day with his nieces and nephew and othe family members at a picnic at Sandy and Scott's we had a day of laughter and the usual teasing and joking IT WAS A GREAT DAY!!!!!!My thoughts and prayers are with you on this day that he will bw memorilized God Bless and again take comfort knowing that his body is comfortable and at rest in God's Hands LOVE Mary Louise

I am so sorry to hear of Bruce's passing. I had not seen him since we were small kids, but often heard stories about him from Lil. It looks like he enjoyed life and loved his family dearly. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Having gone thru this with both of my parents last year, losing them 7 months apart.. I know the pain of losing someone close to you. He was a great guy and supported Renae with her Karate many years ago. We always laughed when we were with him. Remember the good times, hold them close to your heart. look at pictures and remember. You will have alot of "Firsts" this year and they will hurt. But you will get thru them with the help and support of family and friends. Trust me on that, I know.He is at peace now and that is comforting to all.

It is so hard to find the right words to say how truly sorry I am. He was like a brother and such a dear friend. We could go on for months without being in touch, but we always caught up. Again, anyone who knew him was truly blessed and he will be deeply missed. Hold your memories close through these difficult times. The video is beautiful and so emotional touching as is this picture with Bruce in this hat. All my love to the entire family.
