I had the pleasure of working with Jim at the Times printing plant for years. We enjoyed many conversations and his great sense of humor. When I think of Jim I remember the day he spoke at Jim Bissett's retirement party. "Huge" as we called him, brought the house down with his humor. What a fine man. I missed him everyday I went into work after his retirement; no one could take his place. God bless you, Jim..rest in peace.
