Barb and family, my prayers for peace and comfort are with you. It has been many years since we last met but you have all been in my heart and thoughts whenever I think of or visit Indianapolis. Denton and Hazel were favorites of mine and I adored your family and the love for our Lord that was so evident. Your family has grown considerably and know that bring much love and comfort to you. We do have the assurance we will all be reunited with our Father. Love and prayers of comfort for you all. In Him, Brenda (Cox) Arpin

Barb, Today Janice and I were driving down Meridian St. in downtown Indianapolis and were stopped at a stoplight. I glanced over and saw we were next to University Park where Jim and Dad used to eat their good weather lunches when they worked for Everitt I. Brown. There was a particular older lady, dressed rather oddly, who regularly showed up there. Jim nicknamed her Grennit Roadkabatz. That name stuck with me as a young child. I remember it like it was yesterday. Of course, we have many memories of him and your entire family. Thanks for your friendship with both our families over the decades. You are in our prayers. Our memories go back many, many years with having the pleasure of serving on the church board at First Christian Church of Largo with both Jim and when his dad and my dad served together. Jim and Barbara have always held a special place in our hearts. For his faithful service for many, many years he is now able to reap his reward. We will miss you when we visit the Seminole church but rejoice in the thoughts of reuniting in Heaven. Lloyd & Parley Hughes
