One of many memories was when Bob let me use his Shopsmith and help me build a rocking horse for my Nephew Nathaniel. He still has it and I hope some day will have a child to ride it. Bob was a great friend and will be missed by many of us.

Sarah and Stacey, I am so sorry for your loss, Bob was an amazing man and will be missed by many people. Just know he is always watching over you and will always be with you. I bet him and mom are having some talks about good times from the past. Please know I am here for you if either of you need anything at all. Hugs to you both and god bless! Love from OHIO!!!!
