I will always remember Melissa's great humor. She was always so friendly and sweet. She was easy to be around. I saw her at a Dr. appt. few yrs. ago and she still remembered me we hugged it was so good to see her. God bless and keep your family.

Melissa and I worked together at Suncoast Cathedral. We shared many things in common and laughed a lot. She blessed me and those around her with her wit. It has been a while since I have seen her, but she will remain in my heart as one of those very special people in my life. I am thankful to know we will meet again in heaven. My husband, Larry, and I are praying for her family.
