My condolences on your loss. My grandfather "Antonio Mondejar", was Rene's father's brother. Though I have never meet him, I have heard of him thru the internet. I also served 6 years in the U.S. Army as a Paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne Division and I was in the invasion of Grenada. My father "Santos Mondejar" told me that Rene was his cousin. May he rest in peace for he truly deserves all the blessings of God and I'm sure he is enjoying heaven right now. On behalf of Santos Mondejar's family our deepest condolences to your family on your loss. Nelson Mondejar

Dear Mr Rene Mondejar Jr: First allow me introduce myself I'm Lino Torres's grandson a very closed friend of your father from Cuba. A few minutes ago I was looking for your father at the Internet because we havent received any news from him and Onix from a long time. As I mentioned before my grandfather Lino and your father were very closed. My father Nelson and my mother Alejandra were in touch with him as long as my grandfather lived. My grandfather past the way on november 13, 2012. We consider precautios not to mention him my grandfather''s death becace Mondejar was too fragil to receive sad news by this time. Your father was considered as a family member because of the special relationship he and my grandpa had since their chilhood. I'm so sorry for his death. Please receive my truly condolences. Its sad we havent had the chance to meet us in a very different circunstances. Yours Nelson Eddy Torres Jr. Friend of your father
