The last time i saw uncle bub we too. Him on a dolphin watch! He really enjoyed that. I didn't get to see him as much as i would've liked in later years but i have many, many memories growing up. I remember all the parties and cookouts we had on cross st. in lynn..i was just a kid. I remember flying to Florida and staying with you and Aunt Grace for a week..you were both amazing to me...i was 13. I remember when we moved to Florida..you let me drive your car! I was really excited. .it was a nice car...was 18. I remember when you were here for my wedding...you were able to extend your visit because you stayed at our apartment while we were on our honeymoon...i was 27. I could go on and on.... i used to love all the stories you would tell...i remember sitting on mom and dads porch drinking beers and just having plain old fun... i was in my40's. you will be sorely missed uncle bub! Tell aunt Gracie i said hi! Love you..

I had the extrememe priveledge and honor of being in Florida during February vacation and having the oppurtunity of taking uncle Bubby out for a day. We picked him up on Friday 2-20-14 and headed to his favorite place the Amvets. We spent a couple hours there. He said he couldnt have any fluids....So he had 2 beers. And the stories he shared. I will cherish that day the rest of my life. Then we headed to an old stomping ground, the infamous Chattraway restaurant! He Thoughroly enjoyed a mega hamburger with everything and of course had another Beer! I listened and learned more form my uncle in that single afternoon than I ever knew about him. He is a wonderful man and I admire him. God speed Uncle Bubby. I know you are with Aunt Gracie right now.
