Friend forever... faithful and fun Jamie, a new life you have begun.. I remember your laughter and even some tears... It seems you should have been with us many more years.. There'll be a time when again we will meet. We'll laugh, sing and share.. that will be a treat.. Your friends and family will have adjustments to make.. May they find peace and joy with the new steps they'll have to take.. Find comfort in the good memoriesof the past.. Find treasures in the life of a wife Mom who left us so fast..~~~~~ Love and prayers to you..Larry, the children and grandchildren...

Jamie was my Boca Ciega High School journalism advisor when I was the school newspaper editor. She was a sweet, caring teacher who influenced my choice of journalism as a lifetime career. I remember her loaning me, a 16-year-old student, her car in order to take our galley proofs to the printer each week. I have always wondered where she lived and whether she taught anywhere else after I graduated. I was so sorry to read her obituary this morning and to discover she had been right here in Pinellas County all these years. Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I am sure she was a wonderful wife and mother. Christine Rolfe Vaughn
