Nancy J. Wheeler

OCT 31, 1930 - MAY 13, 2013

Letters to a Mother from her sons: My Mother seems so far away from me, on that beautiful white shore across the sea yet I remember love's soft glow upon her face and the feel of her touch and tender embrace. When I reminisce about the things she used to say, and I miss her and think she is so far away, I remember what she gave lives on through me. And one day I'll see her on the shore across the sea I love you and miss you Mom, Your Son, Charlie Mom I'm so sorry that your time has come to join the angels. Thank you for being there for me for all of my 55 years, and for always being so understanding and supporting me no matter what. I could not have done it without you. You will always be in my thoughts and in my heart forever. Goodbye for now, but I will see you again. Say hello to Dad and Butch for me and tell them that I love and miss them as well.

Love and miss you already.

Love always, your son Steve. Nancy J. Wheeler

Granny, although we have only known each other a short time, you always made me feel like part of the family. From all the stories I hear and continue to hear about you, you were an amazing woman. We all know that God has a very special place for you in heaven. I know that you are loved dearly and will be missed by so many, especially your wonderful granddaughter Jenn, there is not a day that passed that she doesn't talk about you. Jenn is having a such a hard time with your passing, I pray one day soon that you will send her a sign and let her know that you are doing well. I am honored to have had the chance to finally meet you, after hearing so many wonderful stories about you. Until we meet again, RIP and always know that you are loved by so many and will never be forgotten. Love Matt Powell

I heard your voice in the wind today and I turned to see your face; The warmth of the wind caressed me as I stood silently in place. I felt your touch in the sun today as its warmth filled the sky; I closed my eyes for your embrace and my spirit soared high. I saw your eyes in the window pane as I watched the falling rain; It seemed as each raindrop fell it quietly said your name. I held you close in my heart today it made me feel complete; You may have died...but you are not gone you will always be a part of me. As long as the sun shines... the wind blows... the rain falls... You will live on inside of me forever for that is all my heart knows. Grandma, I know my Dad and Pop Pop were right there holding your hand during your final journey. I will miss you all the days of my life and I will carry you with me until we meet again. Everytime the wind blows and a butterfly graces my shoulder, I will be reminded of your loving spirit. I love you today, tomorrow and for always. Amber

I will forever hold our memories in my heart. I know we lived far apart but not every day that went by that I didn't think of you. I know when you were welcomed into God's kingdom my Dad and Pop were there welcoming you with open arms. You will live in perfect peace in a new body God has created for you no more pain or suffering. I look forward to the day I can join you along with my Dad, Pop and the rest of my family who has passed before me. I love you Grandmom until God takes me home where you in turn will greet me one day. Love you, Stacie
