When I was in high school Mrs Warner was always a lovely hostess who welcomed her daughter's friends into their home. Often times she took us along on her boat for thrills off the coast of Panama. She'll always be remembered for her beauty and her sense of adventure and fun. She will be missed.

I will always remember she always told me when I was mowing to wear a hat. Too bad she did not go into politics. She could have straighten a few heads. Our heartfelt prayers for you. Thanks for sending us this announcement. Beautiful photo. Hugs.
