Ms. Geraldine "Geri" Mosher

SEP 21, 1933 - MAY 6, 2013

Geraldine Mosher, "Geri", age 79, passed away May 6, 2013 at Northside Hospital with family at her bedside after a long term illness. She also was under Hospice care for approximately a year. Geri was born in Erie, Pennsylvania on September 21, 1933 and moved to Pinellas County, Florida in 1956, living for the last 35 years in Pinellas Park. She worked for General Electric (the Atomic Energy Commission) for 12 years, and at Albertson's Market for 20 years before retiring. She loved crafting, crocheting especially, playing bingo, crossword puzzles, and the last few years using her computer to stay in touch with friends and relatives. She is survived by her daughter, Kathleen Campbell of Pinellas Park, grandchildren Alan, Brian, and Craig all from Pinellas Park, great-grandchildren Christopher, Jacob, and Jaymie, as well as great-great grandchildren Gabriel and Jameson.

Geri will certainly be missed, we were friends since grade school in Erie, Pa. She was like a sister to me when we were growing up and have lots of memories of fun times with her and her parents. If not know them I would have never moved to Pinellas Park. My deepest sympathy goes to her family and they are in my prayers.
