Grigoriy, I met you only once and you were very pleasant. Your daughter Irina loves you and the rest of your family. She always talked about what a good father you were to her and how brilliant you were. You would be very proud of how much care, love, attention and detail she put into your care as a result of your love for her; in which, she has given in return. You will always be remembered and loved by her and her memories she will share with "Davey", so you will never be forgotten. Your suffering is gone, and I know you are taking pleasure in the Lord, you will see your daughter again.
