Lil was a wonderful friend and travel companion. We worked at the same hospital; she was on nights and I was on evenings. It was through that association that a friendship began. I remember her saying she never trusted someone who didn't smile! She loved her "kids" very much and always prayed for their happiness. I cannot believe she is gone but I have so many memories to cherish. Lovely Lil will always be in my heart and I know that she is praying for everyone in her heavenly home. Joan
