"Mr.Telese" was my 4th grade teacher at Town n Country Elementary. He was an amazing teacher and I remember his creative and artistic talent even at that young age. He would read the most interesting book to us at rest time,Joe Savage, and I will never forget those fond memories. I am now 65! My condolences on his passing. Gloria Stagi Coyle

Our deepest sympathies to Joe and the Family. We met Angelo and Joe when we moved to Tampa 11 years ago. Angelo was one of the most kind, elegant and fun men we have ever known. What an exceptional combination that we had the privilege to experience. Angelo will live on in our hearts through the beauty of our homes that he decorated. We will miss his friendship but will cherish all the memories and the many enjoyable times we had together. Heaven must be even more beautiful with the great decorator and man Angelo Telese. All our Love, Shelley and Charles

Buster was a once-in-a-lifetime friend. We met at Jesuit High School and have been friends for 56 years. No matter how many patches of time passed when we didn't see each other, when we met once again he was always the same beautiful spirit, the same wise, protective, generous soul. His heart glowed. And, so importantly and poignantly, he was always there, yes always there at the crucial important points and, much more, he loved my mother with all his heart and made her so happy with his visits, full of laughter and mountains of goodies from the Italian bakery. And, even more, he brought Joe into our lives ... beautiful, earnest, glowing alongside of Buster. I will miss him for the rest of my days. Wherever he is, may he be showered with goodness and love, Sam
