Ginny lit a candle in honor of Olivia.

A sweet, kind, gentle, beautiful soul. Luvie was a dear friend to us at Park Central Towers. We spent many fun afternoons at the pool. She always made us laugh. She keeps a special place in our hearts. My parents knew and loved her, too. Our deepest sympathies.- Ginny and Jim Bodkin

I remember when I first met her she had nothing but kind words to say. We were very close. She was a mother to me. She will be so missed but never forgotten.

A few years ago, Olivia came to Tennessee and spent Xmas with us. When she got up on Xmas morning I said Olivia look out the window. It was snowing (just for her) and she was so thrilled she started to cry. Since being in Fla. all those years it couldn't have been any better that snowy morning. She was quite a lady. We will miss her. Love, Jean & Harry
