My husband and I had the pleasure of spending her 95th birthday with her and what fun it was. She exemplified what it means to have a "Joy for Life"....rest in peace! She is probably having a wonderful time in Heaven with all her old friends and family! Love, Steve and Martha Bloom

Dear Peter & family, please accept our condolences at the death of your Mom. The loss of one's Mom is profound. But we can't help but smile on the inside when we think about the legacy Aiada is leaving behind. She taught a lot to all her children and her children's children. Think about all the generations that have been and will be blessed by the life she lived. The good Lord shared her with those on this earth for over a century ! What a blessing for Aiada to have known the love of all her Ranalli family and friends, and now she rests in the loving arms of Christ until you see her again. With sincere sympathy, Don & Marilyn McNamara

Peter & Ann and Family:What great childhood memories visiting the Ranalli homestead on Tompkins St in Tipperary Hill here in Syracuse. Mrs.Ranalli always had a welcoming smile and was always very happy to see us. I don't think I ever left her house without her insisting that I eat something; always one of her delectable Italian dishes she was so noted for. "Mangia, Mangia! , Eat , Eat! ". We hope that all your good family memories carry you through the months to come. With our prayers and deepest sympathy,Billy & Lisa GooleySyracuse,New York
