Doug was a "great guy." His kind heart and gently spirit as he endured his challenges in life were inspirational. He had heart of gratitude for his family and the support they brought to him. The memory that resonates for me is when he was able to obtain his income and move into his new home. He was thrilled to say the least and was so excited for the positive changes and the obstacles he had overcome to accomplish the changes. Doug will be missed and remembered, always with a smile. My prayers for the repose of his soul and for comfort for his family and friends. With Love and Respect, Gina Zeno
