Chip, Our family is thinking of you at this sad time. Your Mom and Dad were great next-door neighbors for so many, many years (since the '60s)!!! Our Aunt Yolanda and Uncle Tony referred to your family as one of the "original" families on Capri!!! We have some great old pictures that we would like to share with you someday!!!
Love, Marion, Patrick and Richard

thank you. i can remember when we moved from Hull Street in Gulfport out to the beach (mom and dad built the house here) in about 1964. so many happy memories. and your family was so highly regarded -- in fact loved -- by mom and dad. they were extremely grateful for such perfect neighbors. everyone became almost instant best friends. dad and tony talked across the fence all the time. there was so much trust, and good friendship....a feeling of good fortune -- genuine happiness. that is what i remember. and shall for always. all the love back to you guys, as well. and with best wishes for a similarly idyllic future full of love and new found friends!! kindest possible regards, chip
