We have so many memories of Aunty Jean, it is hard to sum it up in this short space. My happiest memory of Aunty Jean is her singing "Mnohaya lita" at our wedding and when she phoned us every Christmas. I looked forward to that phone call. I am so glad that Joanne and I were able to visit her at her home (way back in 2002 unfortunately). On behalf of our family- our condolences to Jeanette, Shirley and families. I wish so much that we could be there for the funeral and that the miles between us were much fewer. May God bless you all. Paul, Joanne, Tristen and Cooper Nairn

Christine Kohut sent a virtual gift in honor of Johanka.

God has blessed Jean with many happy, healthy years and she showed joy and kindness to everyone. Jean was a wonderful neighbor and friend for over 22 years and she shared many holidays and celebrations with our family. May you rest in peace in heaven. Our thoughts, prayers and best wishes to her family as we will always remember her fondly. May God bless them all. Sincerely sent from the Kohut family.
