Benjamin S. Magno, Sr.

DEC 16, 1941 - OCT 25, 2015

BENJAMIN S. MAGNO, Sr., 73, of Pinellas Park, passed away October 25, 2015. Born in Paombong, Bulacan of the Philippines on December 16, 1941 to Lazaro S. and Leonarda Magno. Benjamin had a passion for cooking and was well-known for his famous egg rolls and fried wontons. He shared his talent while serving as a cook for the U.S. Coast Guard. Predeceased by his first wife, Christen, Benjamin was fortunate to find love a second time, marrying his surviving wife, Dori. Also survived by his children, Benjamin Jr., Lazaro Sr., Narda, Chrissy and Mina, as well as nine grandchildren. Benjamin will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Visitation will be held at Memorial Park Funeral Home, Saturday, October 31 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon followed by a chapel service. Interment will be led by a horse-drawn caisson immediately following the service. A reception will follow at the VFW Post 4364, 5773 62nd St N, Saint Petersburg, FL.

What an awesome tribute to your father, he was one of the most wonderful and devoted father and husband. He loved his friends and we lived him, and he was always cooking for them. He will be greatly missed. Me and your dad and mom used to go to bingo all the time and then come to your house. He called our daughter Kimberly, "Ticky, Ticky Tac, Toe" Rest in peace our dear friend!

Such a tragedy .. My condolences to the family .. and his new wife . He has been coming to our hall for many years for Bingo .. I am going to miss him at bingo and his famous eggrolls and of course his happy whistles !! I will also miss his lil dirty yet funny and clean jokes .. My thoughts and prayers go out to you all .. Heaven must have needed his cooking up there . May he Rest In Peace and Play some Bingo up there God Bless !!
