Mr. John Daniel Cutler

SEP 25, 1952 - MAR 27, 2016

My Brother John was 63, here's his Story he never got to tell...

As a young boy my brother was like all boys, except He really loved to learn new things and loved to tinker with electronics a lot.

He was a Boy Scout and earned many badges, he had lots of friends and was very well liked by the ladies too. Of course he was handsome, we all got our good looks from my Momma!

He dropped out of Highschool but got his G. E. D. and was drafted into the Army and was deployed to Vietnam to Clean up our Governments Mistakes. 9 years of service the Army gave my brother an honorable Military Medical Discharge. Agent Orange was the cause, and was sent home.

He was never the same.

My Grandmom was ILL, so he left Phila to move to St. Pete Fla to take care of them (my grandparents).

After my grandparents passed away, we lost our Mom 6 months later in Nov 82, He promised my Mom he would go to college and be somebody she would be proud of and so he did.

My brother was a
