Mrs. Shirley D Giraudo

NOV 9, 1934 - MAR 29, 2016

GIRAUDO, Shirley Ann, 81, born in Winter Haven, died March 29, 2016, in her sleep surrounded by her daughter, Kimberly; and her son, Daniel Tobey. She is predeceased by her husband, Maj. Gen. John C. Giraudo. Survivors include grandson, Jason Hastings; granddaughter, Danielle Thomas; and four great-grandsons. She lived a full and wonderful life and traveled the world with her loving husband. She sold real estate in the Gulf Beach-es for over 50 years. “Weep but briefly for our loved one as she will enter the Kingdom of God. For she shall possess a joy and peace that is unattainable on God’s early realm. Rather rejoice in her everlasting and total happiness for her eyes have seen God.” Please send flowers to Memorial Park Funeral Home, 5750 49th Street N., St. Petersburg. Visitation, Friday, April 1, 6:30-8:30 pm; Service, Saturday, April 2, 11 am, followed by a reception, all at Memorial Park Funeral Home.

In the past 20 years, Shirley was the person who provided the most positive impact on my life. We were colleagues at Coldwell Banker in St. Pete Beach. I lived in a very small condo with no view. She believed I would enjoy life better at Harbourside. I ignored her suggestions. On our way to lunch, she surprised me by showing a condo that was for sale by another agency. I did like it because it was much larger and had a water view, yet, I didn't write an offer. Finally, she plopped the paperwork on my desk. I obeyed her. Shirley was aware that she would not be compensated for the sale. She just wanted me to be in a better place. Every day I wake up and feel so fortunate to live in my "happy home". I have repeatedly given thanks to Shirley for making such a difference in my life. Patty Pate Harbourside, South Pasadena
