A nna Louise Hayden Buchner

Ann, 95, passed away May 9, 2016 at the Tierra Pines Nursing Home. Born in New Haven, Connecticut on December 11, 1920 to Maude and Ira Hayden, Sr.

Ann is predeceased by her husband Howard Lincoln Buchner, Sr.

Together they started a family as WWII had begun. They had a daughter, Florence in '42, then a son, Howard, Jr, in '43, when Howard re-enlisted in the Marine Corp to serve our country where he was part of the first landing at Okinawa. Ann had the difficult job of being alone with two children to care for. After the war they were blessed with another son, Robert. Starting out in life as a daughter and sister, she became an amazing wife, mother, homemaker and friend. All that knew her loved her. From neighborhood gatherings to camping, to square dancing and bingo, Ann showered everyone with smiles, love and laughter. She loved life to the fullest. I remember how when the first snow would come, she would wake us all up no matter what time it was, so we could go outside and catch the snow in our mouths. And, when she put roller skates on me, Butch (Howard) and herself and put baby Robert in the carriage so that we could skate up to Yale University. Her friends loved how she embraced life with her many pranks, their card games, and pot luck get together's. Ann is also predeceased by brothers Norman, Eddy, Billy and daughter-in-law, Linda . Her sister (99) Florence Smith lives in Florida. Her brothers Larry and Donnie Hayden along with their wife's, Shirley and Deedee live in Connecticut, while her other brother Ira and his wife Loraine live in West Virginia.

After Howard passed away, Ann moved in with her youngest son so they can help take care of her, for which they did for many years. She lived with them up until last year when she was placed in a very nice nursing home. Ann suffered from Alzheimer's disease. Robert and Lynn took special care of her and we, her family, thank them for all they have done. She was surrounded with love during her last moments with her hands held by Robert and Lynn.

We will miss you mom, but we know that you are in good hands with the Lord.

I'm sorry we could not be with you at this very sad time. I have memories as a child of Aunt Ann teaching me to play cards and how much fun it was to go to her house. Then I have the memories of watching her play with my children and seeing the smiles she brought to yet another generation. Marcy Piekarski

I loved Ann for her humor !! After my husband Bill passed she kept his picture in her purse...one day she showed me the picture saying it was her boyfriend...and she laughed. Another time we were going home from dinner and Robert asked if anyone wanted to stop for ice cream Lynn and I passed....but Ann hauled off and hit me saying "thanks a lot ". Sometimes you just never knew what to expect...but a sweet woman still !!!!
