From the time I met Phyllis at Skips she always brought joy to my life. We lived down the street from each other and she was my friend Phyllis and I was Rosie on the corner. Phyllis was a Mad beach girl all the way, riding her bike down Gulf Blvd and spreading fun and laughter wherever she went. We had so many good times together it fills my heart to have had a good friend like her. She will be dearly missed. Peace and love to you..

Her friends will attest that it was Phyllis's spunk and spirit that drew us all to her. Little did we know how that spirit would translate into such a warrior. She fought a good fight, for a very long time, against a terrible disease. Free from pain at long last...Rest in Peace Phyllis.

Although I left Florida many years ago, I will always remember Phyllis as someone who always made me feel important. She always seemed happy to stop and speak to everyone at anytime, no matter what she was doing. My prayers are with you now.

I only met Phyllis once at the Circle of Friends, but as soon as you met her, you loved her. She had a good soul and a joy to be around. So much fun and was welcomed into the Circle immediately. We never know why they're taken when they are, so we remain thankful for the time we were blessed with Phyllis. God bless, Mark. You're in my prayers. Brenda Abell, Louisville, Ky

Phyllis was a very dear friend. She was part of our Circle of Friends. We would talk on the phone regularly. Our conversations were about food/recipes, animals and plants. I will miss our conversations. To Mark and the furbabies...God bless you. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

Phyllis will never be forgotten. My memory of her was the days of fun at the "camp". There wasn't a day that she didn't smile as I knew it. Phyllis, Danny Sicke and I did a play (Tarzan) for all the mothers and fathers before the week-end Bon-fire by the Bay. She was the perfect Jane. Miss you with my whole heart . Terry Drum

Terry, though I never got the chance to meet you I feel as if we were all part of the extended family at the "camp". your name was often mentioned when we gathered at the Wilcox's or over at Danny's. What a fine, simpler time you all shared. I was proud to be accepted into the clan and also envious of those wonderful summers of your youth.. We will miss her as well as Danny but we are all better people for having known them. Thanks so much for your memories. Mark
