Anna Marie Marbet

MAY 5, 1921 - MAY 12, 2017

Anna Marie Knox Marbet, born May 5, 1921 in Abilene, Texas passed away on May 12, 2017 in St. Petersburg, FL. She was a Ministers daughter of the Presbyterian faith. She graduated in 3 years from McMurray College in 1942 in Abilene, Texas with honors. She was of the top ten of her Junior and Senior Class and was member of the Alpha Chi Sorority. She taught fifth grade in both Abilene, TX and Johnson City, NY. She was hired by the American Red Cross during WWII to serve on the Recreational Staff at the Army Hospital. She trained in Washington DC and was stationed at Strategic Air Command-Army Air Force Personnel Distribution Center at the Army Air Force Hospital, Kelly Field in San Antonio, TX. She moved to Florida in 1963 and did not return to teaching as was engaged to a wholesale jeweler and like to travel to jewelry shows in New York. She then went to work at the Pasadena Realty as a Broker and Sales Agent until 1968 where she achieved "Salesman of the Month" ten times. She then opened her own Antique Business called "The House of Gold" in St. Petersburg, FL until she retired in 1978. She also had two booths at the "Wagon Wheel Flea Market" she worked on weekends for thirty years. She was a "Born Collector", collecting antique perfume bottles, Christmas tree pins, watches, bags and shoes. She told her family to put on her tombstone, "She wore Ralph Lauren and kept a clean car!" Her whole passion was children and antiques. She is survived by three children; Bruce, Pam and Lloyd, seven grandchildren, Jason Marbet, Ashley Marbet, Megan Marbet, Allison Marbet, Kristin Eastman, Gathering Marbet and Tai Marbet; seven great-grandchildren, Camren, Alexis, Skyla, Ethan, Jax, Lily and Luke; one great great-grandchild, Selena.

Anna touched lives with her stories and Poems . She was the strongest woman I've known. Her positive outlook on life and encouraging words is what attracted everyone to her. I loved shopping and taking her to Burger King for her junior whopper no Ketchup extra mustard , french fries and a vanilla milk shake. She was the Burger King ' Queen". I know she is in heaven with her loved ones free of pain..with perfect eye sight and her hearing restored. Anna had a sweet smile , lucky copper red hair and loved her jewelry. Most of all she loved god and her family. I am so thankful I had the pleasure of knowing and loving her . Rest In Peace Shelley

I have a lot of great memories of "Nana". Our shopping trips and dinners were special to me - just the two of us. She would have me laughing so hard with her stories, I could hardly drive sometimes. She was definitely one of a kind and I am so happy I knew her. God's blessings to the family.
