Mr. Jason Dan McMahon

OCT 13, 1971 - OCT 13, 2017

McMahon, Jason Dan, passed away unexpectedly of natural causes on his 46th birthday, October 13th, 2017. He was born on October 13, 1971. He was a native Floridian and had lived in St. Petersburg, Miami, Sarasota, Fort Myers and most recently Gulfport during his lifetime. He graduated from Riverview High School, Manatee College and University of Central Florida. He was survived by his mother, Lorene Penkava Woxman, who loved him more than life itself; his father Steven D. McMahon; aunt/godmother Debbie Penkava Schweitzer, uncles William and Paul Penkava; and many cousins. Gone too soon and loved so much, Jason was a kind and gifted man who will be missed forever. Memorial services will be at a later date.

I did not know Jason very well, but what I remember most about Jason is his wonderful laugh and smile! It will be missed.

Jason loved books. During our time at the University of Central Florida, Jason introduced me to Hunter S. Thompson and his brand of gonzo journalism. I'm still grateful for that. Jason also was a big fan of Jimmy Buffett, but only the older, pre-Parrot Head catalogue. It seems like yesterday that we were listening to A1A by the University Villas swimming pool.

Lorene Woxman lit a candle in honor of Jason.

You were the brightest light in my life and will be with me forever. I love you, Mom.
