Mom..... you will always be my hero... you've been though so much over the past 11 years, and 2017 really took a toll on you, but you always kept striving for a new day with a smile on your face no matter how bad you felt. Thank you for teaching me how to love, how to be kind, and the importance of being and a good Mom and Nana. I'm grateful for the Christmas we had this year, our shopping trips, your first visit to Alessi's, and getting our Christmas nails done together. I love you Mom, you will always be in my heart. I'm sad I can't pick up the phone to call you, but I look forward to seeing you in heaven walking the golden streets. ♥ This is not goodbye, just a break until I see you again. 😊 Patty

I always loved going up to see Aunt Dee and Uncle Jean and play with my cousins. I have great memories of our trip there. I also remember the banana pancakes! I even make those with my kids now. Rest in Peace Aunt Dee, love you ❤️-Nicole

I only have fond memories of staying at my Aunt Dee's and uncle Gene's house when I was a little girl. My father would bring my brother and I up often to visit with my cousins Gene Jr. Vicky, Patty and sweet Ordie.. as I began to have my own family I would bring my children up to visit so they too could have great memories of our family and be able to get to know their second cousin. My Aunt Dee loved those babies, she would rock them forever. My favorite times were when Aunt Dee would make breakfast for all us kids. She would make her most famous banana pancakes and soft boiled eggs! Oh boy! Ordie would just have a fit about. He never liked to eat those eggs, every morning the same thing with Ordie and his breakfast.lol. those were funny times. Aunt Dee's banana pancakes were the bomb and I continued those great pancakes with my kids and now my grandkids. They all love them. I had a lot of good times and have a lot of wonderful memories of my Aunt. She will always hold a special place near and dear to my 💜 and I will miss her. I'm wishing her eternal peace with no more pain or suffering through her journey where she will finally be able to be rejoined with her lost loved ones (especially Ordie). Love you Aunt Dee xxoo
