Don't know how to say that right words, but I had to write a little something about you. Neal you are going to be missed and loved. You might have had some things you needed to work on, but guess you weren't ready. I feel like you were lonely, you miss your wife and you loved your kids. I think sometimes you thought your kids didn't need you, but they did. I guess more than you'll ever know. Your daughter Nelena is so hurt. She is blaming herself because she is the one that found you gone. I guess we don't have the all the answers, but all we know is you're with your wife and she can yell at you. She's probably telling you that you needed to be there for the kids and grand kids. Well you might be gone, but you will never be forgotten. You will always be there in there hearts. rip Neal
