Callie Jones

FEB 11, 1924 - MAR 2, 2018

Callie Jones, beloved Husband, father and friend peacefully passed into Gods hands, surrounded by his wife, of 73 years, Dorothy, his sons Sam and Randy, his daughter-in-law Amanda Hayes Jones and son in-law Bob O’Hearn Jr and niece “That girl” Nanci Bencowsky. Retiring from a long career at McLouth Steel in Trenton, MI he moved to Largo, FL, where he and his wife spent the next 15 years traveling in their motor home making many friends and spending time with loved ones, before settling in Sevierville, TN. Later moving to Fort Myers, FL until moving back to Largo, FL. Born in Garrett, KY he met and married Dorothy Mae Milligan in Logan WV, raised his family in Flat Rock, MI. Callie is survived not only by his Wife, sons, and their partners, his two grandsons Carson and Brice Jones, of Morristown, TN, as well as, hundreds of Nieces and nephews. We celebrate his life for it was always filled with adventure and love, but will deeply miss his many tales of his 94 years. He took a part of each of us with him, but left us all with so much more. He is missed, and life will be a little emptier without him.

Sam, so sorry for the loss of your father. It is hard to lose a parent. I just lost a sister. We can rejoice they are not in pain. They left that for us and so they should.Betty O'Hearn
